VU launches Degree Course in Music

In a first of its kind effort by a private university, Vishwakarma University launched a degree course in music, with focus on both Hindustani as well as Western Classical music. The BA Honours course in music will not only impart the nuances of all kind of music but also provide a platform to launch a career in music world. The course has been blessed with world renowned music maestros, violinist Padmabhushan Dr. L. Subramanian and well known playback singer Padmashri Kavita Krishnamurthi, coming on board as mentors.

Sh. Bharat Agarwal, President of Vishwakarma University welcomed the gathering. Mrs Ruchira Kedar, who would be heading the degree programme at Vishwakarma University, shared the details of the programme. Prof. Dr. Siddharth Jabade, Vice Chancellor of Vishwakarma University proposed vote of thanks. Vice president Trupti Agarwal and Prof. Dr. Vasudev Gade were also present for the function
