

VU pupils to attend Hof varsity for one month

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Pune: Five bachelors in business administration (BBA) students at Vishwakarma University (VU) will attend summer school at the Hof University of Applied Sciences in Germany.

The month-long programme on 'Production and Supply Chain Management' will educate the students on global aspects of production, supply chain practices and recent trends as well as smart technologies used in businesses.

The students include Bhavin Ruparel, Shubham Ugale, Yogikumar Patel, Suhas Kare and Ayushi Patel. The opportunity is the outcome of an academic and research collaboration between VU and Hof University of Applied Sciences recently.

Faculty member Ashish Thite will visit Hof to deliver an eight-hour module on 'Inventory Management and Forecasting in Supply Chains' at the summer school. While Masters in Economics student Hariharan Chandrasekhara will participate in the International Textile Summer School at Hof University.
