

Celebration of International
Commemorative days
International Women's Day
2023

Report

School of Pharmacy
Vishwakarma University
Pune-411048

Purpose: To celebrate International Women's Day 2023.

Objective

Activity was planned with following objectives-

- To spread awareness about Reproductive health of Female
- Share the knowledge on reproductive health and disease associate

Introduction/About

The "Reproductive Health of Females" session was organized to commemorate International Women's Day 2023, with a focus on promoting awareness and understanding of crucial issues related to female reproductive health. The event was jointly organized by the School of Pharmacy and the Department of Law.

Date: 09th March 2023

Coordinators: Prof. Sonali Manwatkar & Prof. Unmesha Patil

Attendees: 60

VU VISHWAKARMA
UNIVERSITY
Maximising Human Potential
University Grants Commission (UGC) Approved State Private University

THURSDAY
09th MARCH 2023

03:00 PM to 05:00 PM

School of Pharmacy in association with the Department of Law celebrates International Women's Day

Guest Session on Reproductive Health of Women

Keynote Speaker
Dr. Supriya Puranik
Director: IVF, Obstetrics & Gynaecology
Sahyadri Hospitals Ltd.

Guest Speaker
Dr. Tanaya P Kamlakar
Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai.
Co-ordinator, Centre for Women, Child Rights and Gender Justice, MNLU Mumbai.

Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Supriya Puranik, the Director of IVF, Obstetrics & Gynecology at Sahyadri Hospital Ltd., graced the occasion as the Keynote Speaker. Dr. Puranik's extensive experience and expertise provided valuable insights into advancements in reproductive health, particularly focusing on the well-being of women.

Guest Speaker:

Dr. Tanaya P Kamlakar, Coordinator at the Centre for Women, Child Rights, and Gender Justice at Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, served as the Guest Speaker. Dr. Kamlakar shared legal and societal perspectives on reproductive health and highlighted the importance of comprehensive laws and policies that safeguard the rights of women and children.

Event Highlights:

The event encompassed a variety of engaging sessions, including expert talks, panel discussions, and interactive workshops. The diverse range of topics covered included:

Modern Approaches in Reproductive Health: Dr. Supriya Puranik elaborated on the latest advancements in assisted reproductive technologies and how they contribute to enhancing female reproductive health.

Legal Framework for Reproductive Rights: Dr. Tanaya P Kamlakar shed light on the legal aspects pertaining to reproductive rights and the need for a robust legal framework to protect and promote women's reproductive health.

Psychosocial Aspects of Reproductive Health: Experts discussed the psychological and social factors that influence female reproductive health, emphasizing the need for holistic support and awareness.

Event Photos:

Conclusion:

The session on the "Reproductive Health of Females" was a significant and enlightening event that underscored the importance of addressing and improving the overall reproductive health of women. The collaboration between the School of Pharmacy and the Department of Law showcased the multidimensional approach needed to comprehensively address the various aspects of female reproductive health.

The insights and knowledge shared by Dr. Supriya Puranik and Dr. Tanaya P Kamlakar proved invaluable in fostering a greater understanding of reproductive health challenges and opportunities. This event served as a stepping stone towards a society that prioritizes and champions the reproductive rights and health of women.

Prepared By	Checked By
Prof. Sonali Manwatkar	Prof. Makarand Puri

Organized By:
School of pharmacy

Vishwakarma University

Survey No. 2, 3, 4 Laxmi Nagar, Kondhwa (Bk.) Pune - 411048. Maharashtra, India